1. Purpose of this Guidance

This document provides guidance for regulated financial service providers (RFSPs) and applicant firms in relation to submitting Individual Questionnaires through the Central Bank of Ireland's Portal for persons who are proposed to hold Pre-Approval Controlled Functions (PCFs).

The following documents, which are available on our website, should be reviewed prior to completing an application.

- Fitness and Probity (F&P) Standards
- Guidance on Fitness and Probity Standards
- Fitness and Probity Frequently Asked Questions
- Minimum Competency Code 2017 (MCC)

The first stage in the process for submitting an Individual Questionnaire (IQ) is for the applicant to create a user account on the Central Bank of Ireland Portal. The account contains the user's name and address. Similarly, user accounts must also be created by persons who act as a 'Point of Contact' and 'Proposer'. The F&P Portal Administrator will ensure that each of the participants has the correct permissions appropriate to their roles. This is described in Section 6.

IQs for Significant Institutions

The European Central Bank ("the ECB") is responsible for making decisions on fitness and probity applications to the management board of significant credit institutions and applicants to the management board of all credit institutions applying for authorisation. Individual applications to these management board positions must be submitted to the ECB using the IMAS Portal. See Section 2.

The second stage of the process is for the applicant to create a F&P Profile. It contains information on personal details of applicant, their experience, qualifications, training and other positions held; and must be entered before creating a new application for a PCF role.

The information can be re-used (and updated) for future PCF applications.

With the exception of a sole trader or a single director in a Private Company Limited by shares, the submission of an Individual Questionnaire is a three stage process. The proposing entity completes section 1.A of the IQ. The applicant needs to complete Sections 1.B to 10 as applicable and submit the application to the proposing entity. The proposing entity then completes section 11 and submits the Individual Questionnaire to the Central Bank of Ireland ('Bank') for assessment. The IQ requires the applicant and proposer to provide information on the applicant's competence capacity, probity and management of conflicts of interests; and must be submitted for each application to perform PCF role(s) in a regulated financial service provider (RFSP). Figure 1.1 summarises the steps for completing and submitting an IQ.

2. Points on Using the System

Date Fields

Whenever a date field is being input, the required format of the field is set out in the question itself. In almost all cases, the date is selected from a pop up 'date picker'.

- 30/07/2023 where date format is DD/MM/YYYY
- 2023 where date format is YYYY

Drop down Lists

Some fields require the applicant to select an entry from a drop-down list box. If the question is relevant but a suitable entry is not available, please choose the entry 'Other', where available.

IMAS Portal

IQs for Significant Credit Institutions must be submitted directly to the ECB through the IMAS Portal. However, in advance of submitting the applications to the ECB, PCF applicants must register on the Central Bank Portal first and create a F&P Profile. The steps such proposed PCFs must follow are set in Figure 2.1.

Inactivity

A Portal login session will time out after eight hours of inactivity, at which point the user will be required to log in as usual (including using the second factor method). When the user is finished using the Portal, it is recommended that they exit the system using the Logout link under Account Settings in the top right corner of the screen. (Figure 2.2)

Internet Browser

The Central Bank of Ireland Portal should work with any modern, standards-based browser and is explained in Browser Support section of the Central Bank of Ireland Portal. The Bank does not require, or recommend, any particular browser as our websites and public-facing applications support the current versions of all major browsers. Testing is concentrated on the most commonly used browsers. At this time, this specifically includes Chrome and Edge – other browsers should work, but are not extensively tested due to low usage on our sites.

Logging On

How to register for the Portal and Log on, including setting up second factor authentication is explained in the Getting Started Help Section of the Bank’s website.

Navigation

Use the ribbon menu across the top of the page to navigate through the IQ. In the example in Figure 2.3, the applicant is entering data in section 7 – Shareholdings in the Proposing entity

- Send to Applicant: This is displayed when the proposer has completed section 1.A (Proposer Preliminary Questions) of the IQ.
- Close: Any changes made on the current page are not saved.
- Save and Close: All changes on the current page are saved, but user is not moved to the next section of the IQ.
- Next: All changes on the current page are saved, and the user is moved to the next section of the IQ. If a user has not answered mandatory questions, these are outlined in red and must be answered before the ‘Next’ action becomes operational.
- Send to proposer: This is displayed when the applicant has completed section 10 (Applicant Declaration) of the IQ.
- Submit IQ: This is displayed when the proposer has completed section 11 (Proposer Declaration) of the IQ.

Text Box Fields

The maximum number of characters permitted is 2,000. If the applicant or proposer are providing information exceeding the 2,000 character limit, please provide the information in a Word document and upload to relevant section of the IQ.

Uploading Attachments

The type of document which may be uploaded is described in the Messaging section of the Central Bank of Ireland Portal.

Please note the system supports up to a maximum size of 30MB per file uploaded. If the user needs to provide additional information but has insufficient space within the form to provide the detail required, the applicant or proposer should upload a document containing the additional information in the relevant section. Paper copies of documents or faxed copies of documentation will not be accepted. All documentation must be scanned and uploaded in the relevant section of the IQ.

3. Account Settings

When using the portal for the first time, the applicant must input their name, any previous name, details of their current address and any previous or secondary addresses they may have had. The Point of Contact and Proposer should register on the Portal in the normal way, is explained in the Getting Started Help Section of the Bank's website.

The user can amend their name and address in the Account Settings by clicking on 'Account Settings icon' (Figure 3.1).

Users can change their name and title (Mr / Ms etc.) in 'My Name Information'. They can also update their current address, and provide details of a secondary address in 'My Address Information'. This is important as residency is a key criterion in the assessment of Fitness and Probity applications (Figure 3.2).

 A screenshot of the 'Account Settings' page. The page has a dark sidebar on the left with 'Account Settings' and 'ONR Accounts' listed. The main content area is titled 'Account Settings' and contains several sections:

- 'My Details' section with fields for 'Email Address' (with a blue box), 'Person Code' (UA0300602), and 'Password' (with asterisks). Each field has a 'Change' button to its right.
- 'My Name Information' section (circled in red) with a 'Current Name' field (with a blue box) and a 'Change' button to its right. Below it is an 'Add Previous Name' button.
- 'My Address Information' section (circled in red) with fields for 'Address Line 1', 'City or Town', 'County', and 'Country'. There are 'Add' and 'Add other address' buttons at the bottom right of this section.

 At the bottom left of the sidebar, there is a 'Back to institution' button with a right-pointing arrow.

4. Fitness and Probity Profile

The F&P profile must be completed by the applicant prior to creating a new application for a PCF role. The information can be re-used (and updated) for future PCF applications. The applicant must provide personal details (so they can be uniquely identified) and provide details of their experience, qualifications, professional memberships, training, regulatory approvals and other positions held so that the Bank can assess the applicant's suitability to perform the relevant PCF(s) applied for.

Please ensure the F&P profile is up to date and that any new information is included.

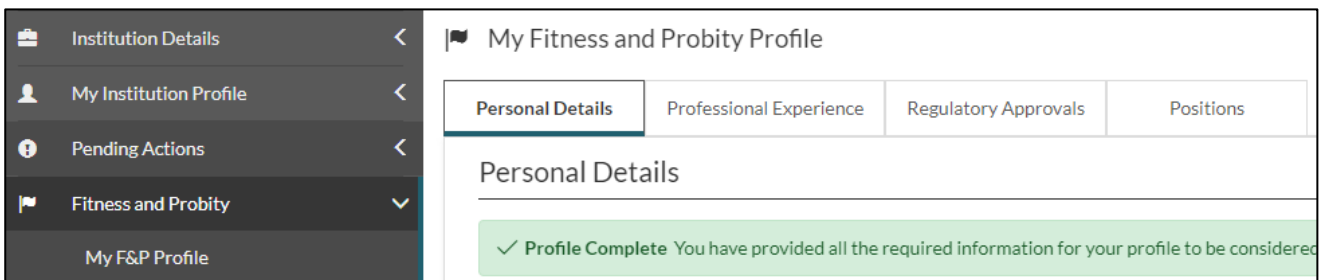

Figure 4.1 – The F&P Profile has four sections that the applicant must complete

The first part of the profile to complete relates to the applicant's personal details. Please ensure that contact details including email address are correct.

In order to enhance reporting on diversity in the financial services sector as published in future Annual PCF Demographic Reports, the Bank wishes to collect personal details so that the Bank can enhance reporting on diversity in the financial services sector as published in future Annual PCF Demographic Reports. The applicant will be asked to consent or otherwise to provide information on country of birth, ethnicity and gender identity.

The Bank believes that diversity and inclusion are important components of well managed firms.

The F&P Profile requests details of the applicant's professional and other experience within the last 10 years, qualifications held and professional memberships, along with other experience prior to the last 10 years which is relevant to the application.

Recognised Qualifications

Applicants who are subject to the Minimum Competency Code (MCC) and who hold a recognised qualification must ensure they enter details of the qualification in the F&P Profile; and evidence of their qualification in Section 4 of the IQ.

The applicant should provide details in chronological order commencing with their most recent employer. If the applicant has experience prior to the most recent 10 years that is relevant to the PCF(s) now being applied for, this information should also be provided in the F&P Profile.

All relevant training undertaken must be included, such as industry briefings, on-the-job training and in-house courses.

If an applicant has been previously approved / refused by the Central Bank, information relating to these decisions is pre-populated into the F&P Profile from Central Bank records. However, the applicant is asked to enter information relating to approvals / refusals etc. by other regulators; and the time commitments for all position(s). It is important as much detail as possible is provided regarding all Financial Regulator approvals, refusals, withdrawals, prohibitions, restrictions and suspensions where applicable. Where approvals have ceased, the reasons for cessation must also be provided. The applicant must also disclose their time commitments to all current roles listed in this section.

The applicant must also provide details of all current and previous positions in financial or non-financial entities which are not regulated.

5. New PCF Application

A new PCF application is required for each financial service provider the applicant wishes to be approved for. The IQ contains questions so that the Bank can assess if the applicant meets the fitness and probity standards. Specifically, information on the applicant's competence, capacity, probity and management of conflicts of interests is required. Section 1.A of the IQ is to be completed by the proposer and must be completed before proceeding to the other sections of that application. Section 1.B of the IQ is to be completed by the applicant before proceeding to other sections. Please note that remaining sections of the IQ are enabled or disabled based on the answers provided in this section and therefore careful consideration should be given when answering.

Section 1.A – Proposer Preliminary Questions

The proposer completes section 1.A of the IQ. The proposer provides information relating to the legal structure of the RFSP in Q1.4 and Q1.5.

Q1.6 asks if the firm is establishing or established as a Sole Trader or Single Director Company. The proposer should answer this question carefully. If the answer is incorrect it is not possible to unlock the IQ to amend it – a new IQ will have to be submitted.

If the email address of the RFSP's authorisation or supervisory division is known, please provide this in Q1.7.

Q1.8 requires the authorisation status of the RFSP to be provided, while question 1.9 asks for the branch location.

In Q1.10, more than one sector can be selected from the list of sectors displayed.

Credit Unions that are authorised as a retail intermediary

These credit unions should select the 'credit union sector' in Q1.10. However, Q1.13 should be answered 'Yes', where the credit union is authorised also as a retail intermediary.

In Q1.11, more than one PCF role can be selected. Only the roles appropriate to RFSP's sector will be displayed.

If the firm is a Sole Trader or Single Director Company, be careful answering Q1.6. If you make a mistake, you cannot amend your answer, a new IQ is needed.

Q1.12 should be answered 'Yes' if the application relates to an outsourced PCF.

Q1.14 should be answered 'Yes' if the Proposer considers that the MCC is applicable.

Credit Unions

For Credit Unions, Proposers must answer 'Yes' to question Q1.14 if the MCC applies to the applicant. Q1.19 is then enable so the applicant can state if they have a recognised qualification, are a new entrant or availing of the grandfathering provisions.

Due Diligence for Proposer Preliminary Section

Relevant due diligence can be uploaded in Q1.15.

In this regard it is recommended that any documentation relating to a PCF role being performed on an outsourced basis (where the proposer answers 'Yes' to Q1.12) should be uploaded.

Section 1.B – Applicant Preliminary Questions

This section of the form is to be completed by the applicant and must be completed before proceeding to the other sections of that application. Please note that remaining sections of the Individual Questionnaire may be enabled or disabled based on the answers provided in this section and therefore careful consideration should be given when answering.

Q1.16 to Q1.19 determine if the MCC is applicable and therefore careful consideration should be given when answering these questions. The answer to these questions will enable or disable Section 4 of the application accordingly. The applicant must also ensure that the necessary documentation is attached in Section 4 of the application. If the applicant does not submit the correct documentation relating to their compliance with the MCC, such as evidence of qualifications, grandfathering status, new entrant status, and/or continuing professional development, the application will be returned as incomplete.

Q1.20 relates to current approvals by another Financial Services Regulator within the EU/EEA.

Q1.21 asks if the applicant has previously been approved to the same PCF role in a different RFSP.

The questions in Section 1.B should be answered carefully as subsequent sections of the IQ are enabled or disabled based on the answers provided.

Q1.23 applies to the credit union sector only and requests information on savings and loans. If answered 'Yes' the relevant part of section 7 is enabled.

Q1.23 and Q1.24 refer to shareholdings and business interests and will enable or disable sections 7 and 8 of the application depending on the response.

Q1.25 refers to position(s) the applicant holds / may have held in other entities, and will enable or disable section 9 depending on the answer.

Q1.26 refers to whether the applicant's fitness and probity has ever been assessed by an authority from a non-financial sector. If so, answer 'Yes' to this question.

Sole Trader and Single Director Company

If applying as a sole trader, answer 'Yes' to Q1.27 and a truncated Section 11 is mandatory. If applying to be a Single Director in a Private Company Limited by Shares, answer 'Yes' to Q1.28 and a truncated section 11 is mandatory.

Q1.29 asks if the IQ is being submitted as part of a firm's application for authorisation or a renewal of an existing authorisation. If so, answer 'Yes' to this question.

Q1.30 asks if the applicant is awaiting the outcome of a separate IQ application.

Q1.31 must be answered 'Yes' if the application is part of an acquiring transaction.

Finally, Q1.32 asks whether the applicant currently works for the proposing entity.

Due Diligence for Applicant Preliminary Section

Relevant due diligence is not needed in section 1.B, but is uploaded later in the IQ.

Q1.29: Renewal of existing authorisations typically apply to the High Cost Credit sector.

Section 2 – Personal Questions

Most of the questions in this section are pre-populated.

Q2.7 asks the applicant to explain how they intend to meet the requirements of the role, if they are not resident in the state or relocating to Ireland.

In relation to Q2.13 and Q2.15, if the applicant holds dual citizenship only details of one passport is required.

Due Diligence for Personal Questions

Relevant due diligence is not needed in section 2, but is uploaded later in the IQ. Applicants who the Bank request to be vetted by the National Vetting Bureau will be asked to provide proof of identification as part of that process.

Section 3 – Professional Experience Questions

Questions relating to professional experience, educational qualifications, professional memberships, and relevant training are pre-populated from information supplied in the F&P Profile.

Q3.5 to Q3.7 refer to the applicant's specific competence for the PCF role being applied for; their knowledge of the business and the regulatory environment of the RFSP.

Head of Actuarial Function

Q3.8 – Q3.11 refer only to persons applying for PCF-48 (Head of Actuarial Function). The applicant is asked to outline how they have the required experience for the role, confirm their understanding of the domestic actuarial regime and upload a copy of their CV.

Due Diligence for Professional Experience

The Bank does not expect proof of the due diligence undertaken by the RSFP to be uploaded, as a matter of course. However, in assessing particular PCF application, evidence of the due diligence undertaken by the RFSP may be requested.

Section 4 – Minimum Competency Code (MCC)

If the applicant answers 'Yes' to Q1.18 and they are a Qualified Person, New Entrant or are availing of Grandfathering arrangements they are required to complete Section 4 of the IQ. If the applicant does not submit the correct documentation relating to their compliance with the MCC, such as evidence of qualifications, new entrant status, grandfathering status, and / or continuing professional development, the application will be returned as incomplete.

It is strongly recommended that applicants read the MCC in full before completing the questions in Section 4. If the applicant answers 'No' to any question in Section 4 of the application that they do not meet the MCC requirements (for New Entrants and applicants availing of Grandfathering Arrangements, it is not possible to continue with the application

Recognised Qualification

Applicants who have obtained a relevant qualification as listed on the Central Bank website meet the MCC requirements in respect of the retail financial products and the specified functions associated with those retail financial products. Applicants must provide details of the qualification; confirm that they have provided details of the professional body they are a member of (in the F&P profile and section 3 of the IQ); and state which retail financial product they will be providing advice on.

Due Diligence for holders of Recognised Qualifications

Applicants should upload a copy of their qualification and evidence that they are compliant with its associated Continuing Professional Development (CPD) requirements.

New Entrant Arrangements

An applicant may avail of the New Entrant arrangements where certain conditions are met. The new entrant must first undergo a training programme organised by the regulated firm on whose behalf the new entrant is acting, which is relevant to the function to be exercised, or have obtained part of a relevant recognised qualification for that particular function. For non-debt management applications, the new entrant must act under the immediate direction and supervision of another nominated person, who is a qualified person or a grandfathered person in respect of the particular function being carried out by the new entrant. For Debt management applications, the new entrant must act under the immediate direction and supervision of a qualified or transitional person. For Credit servicing applications, the new entrant must act under the immediate direction and supervision of a qualified or grandfathered person.

Q4.4: Applicants should upload a copy of their qualification and evidence that they are compliant with its associated CPD requirements.

Due Diligence for New Entrants

The new entrant must attach documentary evidence that they (a) have undergone a training programme organised by the RFSP on whose behalf they are acting; (b) are working towards obtaining a relevant recognised qualification and (c) are acting under the immediate direction and supervision of another nominated person, who is a qualified person or grandfathered person in respect of the particular function being carried out. Full details on the criteria for New Entrants can be found in the MCC.

Grandfathering Arrangements

An applicant can avail of the grandfathering arrangements if, on 1 January 2007, the applicant was dealing with the retail financial product or specified activity (other than retail credit or home reversion agreements) in respect of which s/he is availing of the grandfathering arrangements or on 1 June 2008 in respect of retail credit or home reversion agreements.

Due Diligence for Grandfathering applicants

The applicant must attach a Statement of Grandfathered Status signed by their employer and documentary evidence of the CPD undertaken in the last 3 years (15 hours per year). If the applicant was a sole trader at 1 January 2007 commission statements for a four year period can be submitted instead of a Statement of Grandfathered Status. Full details on the criteria for Grandfathering arrangements can be found in the MCC.

Section 5 - Reputation and Character

This section is mandatory for all applicants. The applicant should be candid and truthful and provide a full, fair and accurate response to all questions. Failure to disclose an issue or provision of insufficient information in response to a 'Yes' answer to any question may result in a delay in the assessment or in a return as incomplete of the applicant's IQ. Where the applicant answers 'Yes' to a question, a following question is enabled and mandatory. The applicant must provide details of the issue and explain how they consider that the matter does not affect their suitability for the role. Q5.55 will also become mandatory so the applicant can upload supporting documentation to allow the Bank to determine if the issue is material to the application.

Applicants should be candid and truthful and provide a full, fair and accurate response to all questions.

For example, Q5.11 should be answered 'Yes' where the applicant was required to return money already paid by the employer due to alleged fraud, misconduct or poor performance. Q5.12 is then enabled where the applicant has the opportunity to explain how the matter does not have a material impact on their probity.

Q5.1: A person is required to be honest, ethical, act with integrity and be financially sound.

In relation to questions 5.7, 5.13, and 5.29, the applicant is required to provide additional information on the following matters:

- Reason for the disciplinary measure:
- Date /time frame of the alleged wrongdoing:
- Have you appealed against the disciplinary action?
- (If applicable) details of the company involved in the procedure
- Any other mitigating or aggravating factors

Q5.49 to Q5.54 apply to the Credit Union Sector only.

Due Diligence for Reputation and Character

The applicant should disclose information on any potential probity issue and upload the relevant documentation in Q5.55 to allow the Bank to determine if the issue is material or not to the application.

If the applicant answers 'Yes' to any of the questions in Section 5 documentary evidence in support of the answer must be provided, for example; court reports, regulator decision notices, etc. Delays in application assessment may occur if insufficient information is provided in relation to each 'Yes' response provided in this section of the application.

The applicant should disclose information on any potential probity issue and upload the relevant documentation in Q5.55 to allow the Bank to determine if the issue is material or not to the application.

Due Diligence for Payment and Electronic Money firms

IQs submitted for Payment Institutions, Electronic Money Institutions and Crowd Funding Service Providers are required to supply additional due diligence for Q5.7, Q5.17, Q5.29, Q5.31, Q5.37, Q5.39, Q5.41, Q5.43, Q5.45, and Q5.47; together with supporting documentation in Q5.55. Please refer to the 'Guidance on the Specific Requirements that apply to persons seeking approval for a Pre-Approval Controlled Function role in a Payment Institution or Electronic Money Institution' which is published on the Central Bank website.

Section 6 - Applicant Current and Previous Financial Regulator Approvals

This section is pre-populated from information supplied in the F&P Profile.

Section 7 – Savings in the Credit Union

If the applicant answers 'Yes' to Q1.22 this section is mandatory. The applicant must provide details of any (a) savings in the proposing credit union; (b) loans or guarantees of a loan with the proposing credit union; and (c) loans with the proposing credit union in the past year that are or have been in arrears for a period greater than 90 days.

Due Diligence for Credit Union Savings

Details of the loans in arrears should be uploaded in Q7.15.

Section 7 - Applicant Shareholdings in Proposing Entity or Group Companies

The purpose of this section is for applicants to declare any shareholdings in the proposing entity or guarantees in respect of its liabilities. This information is used by the Bank in assessing any potential conflicts of interest that may arise. If the applicant answers 'Yes' to Q1.23 this section is mandatory. The applicant must provide details of current or proposed shareholdings in the proposing entity or related entities, including voting rights. The applicant is also required to provide details of any guarantees they have given in respect of the liabilities of the proposing entity and of any agreements they have entered into which influence the way in which they exercise their voting rights.

Due Diligence for Shareholdings in proposing Entity

Where an applicant has answered 'Yes' to any of the questions in section 7, supplementary information to demonstrate that the applicant does not face a conflict of interest should be provided.

Section 8 - Applicant Shareholdings in Other Entities

The purpose of this section is for applicants to declare any business interests in other entities. This information is used by the Bank in assessing any potential conflicts of interest that may arise. If the applicant answers 'Yes' to Q1.24 this section is mandatory. The applicant must provide details of all current and previous business interests in financial and non-financial entities. The applicant must also provide details of personal liabilities, guarantees provided in respect of liabilities and any services provided for remuneration to the proposing entity within the last 3 years.

In relation to ‘personal relationships’ referred to in Q8.6, the applicant must provide details of any work or personal relationships with members of the Board of Directors and/or Senior Executive Management Team within any of the entities listed in Section 8 of the IQ. (For example: Parent, Child, Partner, Husband, Wife, Aunt, Uncle, Employer (past / present), or any other relevant relationship).

Due Diligence for Shareholdings in Other Entities

Where an applicant has answered ‘Yes’ to any of the questions in section 8, any supplementary information to demonstrate that the applicant does not face a conflict of interest should be provided.

Section 9 - Positions as an Executive/Non-Executive Director, Chair, Manager or Financial Service Provider in any entity (Financial or Other) where the position has not been approved by a Financial Regulator.

If the applicant answers ‘Yes’ to Q1.25, this section is mandatory. Information for Q9.1 is pre-populated from the F&P Profile. The applicant must provide details of all current and previous professional or personal relationships with the entities listed in Q9.1. Information on previous fitness and probity assessments by an authority in a Non-Financial Sector is also required.

Due Diligence for Other Directorships

Where an applicant has answered ‘Yes’ to any of the questions in section 9, supplementary information to demonstrate that the applicant does not face a conflict of interest or have insufficient capacity to perform the PCF role should be provided.

Section 10 – Applicant Declaration

Details of one referee (the applicant’s most recent employer) must be provided where the applicant is applying for a role in a Credit Institutions, Investment Firms (MiFID), Electronic Money Institutions, Payment Institutions, Bureau De Change or Virtual Asset Service Providers sector.

Details of two referees (the applicant's two most recent employers) must be provided where the applicant is applying for a role in Insurance / Reinsurance Intermediaries, Investment Intermediaries, Mortgage Intermediaries, Mortgage Credit Intermediaries, Debt Management Firms, Credit Servicing Firms, Retail Credit / Home Reversion Firms, High Cost Credit Providers, and / or acting as a Sole Trader or a Single Director in a Private Company Limited by Shares. Where the applicant has been self-employed for more than 10 years the Bank requires contact details of two individuals familiar with the applicant's financial service activities.

In relation to Q10.2, a material change is considered a change to the information provided in the application which would affect the applicant's ability to perform the PCF role(s) applied for.

Following the completion of Section 10 and once all relevant information has been included in the application, the applicant should submit the IQ to the Proposer.

Due Diligence for Applicant Declaration

The applicant should upload any documentation they consider necessary in support of their application in Q10.20.

Incomplete Applications

If the applicant does not provide sufficient information in the IQ application to demonstrate their compliance with the Fitness and Probity Standards, the IQ will be returned as incomplete.

Q10.9: Applicant confirms they are compliant with F&P Standards.

Section 11 - Proposer Declaration

Section 11 must be completed by the proposer, who must be a PCF in the RFSP. For entities which are not yet authorised, the proposer should be a proposed PCF.

A single point of contact in the proposing entity / legal representative is required for all queries that may arise in relation to the application. Queries in relation to all sections of the IQ will be addressed to the point of contact, including questions which may need to be referred to the applicant.

Point of Contact

Normally the point of contact is a person who is an employee of the RFSP. However, where firms or funds choose to use a legal representative as the point of contact, that person needs to register as a Portal User and the RFSP's Portal Administrator needs to assign them permission to act as a Point of Contact for the IQ.

All questions in Section 11 must be answered before the application can be submitted for consideration by the Bank. Please note Section 11 must be completed and submitted by the PCF who is proposing the applicant. Please note the applicant and the proposer will not be able to submit the application if any mandatory fields are left unanswered or un-ticked. If, following review by the proposer, the applicant needs to amend any section of the application, they must resubmit the application to the proposer.

The proposer should outline in Q11.2 why the applicant is competent to perform the PCF role(s). In Q11.3, details of why the appointment complements the RFSP's business strategy should be outlined. If the PCF is not going to perform the role on a full time basis, the proposer should explain how they are satisfied the role can be performed effectively in Q11.10. Any conflicts of interests and their management need to be addressed in Q11.11. If the applicant disclosed a reputation issue in section 5 of the IQ, the proposer must explain in Q11.12 how the RFSP decided that the issue does not affect the applicant's suitability for the role.

Credit Institution Addendum

Where the applicant is applying for a PCF role in a credit institution where the Bank is the decision maker, the 'Credit Institution Addendum' must be uploaded – Q11.13 and Q11.14 refer. Where the European Central Bank is the decision maker on the PCF application, the IMAS Portal must be used for submitting IQs.

Where an IQ is unlocked for the applicant or proposer to amend information in the IQ, Q11.20 must be answered to the effect that the RFSP is satisfied that the changes are accurate and complete.

Due Diligence for Proposer Declaration

As IQs submitted to the Bank are endorsed by the RFSP, the proposer must declare in the IQ that the RFSP has carried out all necessary due diligence enquiries (Q11.6 refers). The RFSP should disclose all information, relevant and potentially relevant, to the Bank for assessment of a proposed appointee's fitness and probity. Adverse information in relation to the proposed PCF should be brought to the attention of the Bank and the RFSP should explain why this does not affect the individual's suitability for the role proposed (Q11.12 refers). Where a RFSP has a doubt as to the materiality of a piece of information in this regard, this should be disclosed and explained. The Bank will challenge RFSPs and applicants if they fail to make full disclosures in the IQ. The Bank takes non-disclosure seriously, especially where there is an apparent attempt to mislead. This may call into question not only the applicant's suitability but also the firm's decision to propose the individual in question.

Incomplete Applications

If the proposing entity does not provide sufficient information in the IQ application to demonstrate the applicant's compliance with the Fitness and Probity Standards, the IQ will be returned as incomplete.

RFSPs are obliged to ensure that they do not propose a person to perform a PCF role unless they are satisfied on reasonable grounds that the person complies with the F&P Standards and has agreed to abide by them. This should include consideration of the number of other roles held by the person (Q11.8, Q11.9, and Q11.11 refer).

RFSPs should require those persons proposed for PCF roles to undertake to notify them of any changes in their circumstances, which might be material to their fitness or probity (Q11.16 refers).

PCF approval may be granted based on the IQ alone, however, the Bank may interview the applicant to assess their suitability for the role.

The Bank expects the RFSP to obtain evidence of academic qualifications, retain interview notes and document an assessment as to the suitability of the applicant. Other due diligence that should be undertaken, as appropriate, includes: references from previous employers, judgement searches, regulatory searches, directorship searches and adverse media searches, including adverse media searches regarding previous employers that could assist with identifying potential fitness and probity concerns to be examined further.

6. Fitness and Probity User Permissions

The Portal Administrator can grant Fitness and probity permissions.

Reach out to the Portal Administrator in the RFSP – see: How do I request a change to my permissions?

The following permissions can be granted by the Portal Administrator in the RFSP in relation to the Fitness and Probity process:

- F&P Administrator – Carry out administrative activities in relation to all IQ applications
- Proposer – Propose and submit Individual Questionnaire applications for Central Bank approval
- Applicant – Complete individual Questionnaire and submit to the Proposer
- Point of contact – Engage with the Bank via the Portal in relation to the IQ application.

Once a user is granted a Fitness and probity permission(s) they will see the Fitness and probity Menu appear on the portal:

- My F&P profile - Applicant
- F&P applications – F&P Administrator, Proposer, Applicant and Point of Contact
- In-situ - F&P Administrator (Not yet developed)
- Annual PCF confirmation - F&P Administrator (Not yet developed)

7. F&P Applications

Access to the Fitness and Probity page of the portal (Figure 7.1 refers), enables the user to carry out a function in relation to an IQ on behalf of the RFSP. Based on the user's role they are able to perform some or all of the activities noted below:

- Complete and submit IQs
- View an IQ and its status
- Submit requests to the Central Bank regarding an application e.g. withdraw or unlock an application
- Submit and respond to messages in respect of an individual Questionnaire
- Create a F&P profile where the applicant can store personal information, professional experience etc. which will be used in their Individual Questionnaire

Applicants must complete their F&P profile prior to starting an IQ application. See section 3.
